Vapor Floor Lamp by Lodes

The Vapor floor lamp was designed by Karim Rashid in 2012. The lamp is characterised by its voluptuous and curvaceous form, have smooth, attractive lines that are eye-catching. The structure is made from metal and has a pleated plastic diffuser which emits a soft, warm glow. The floor lamp is quite tall and with light sources from top to bottom, will illuminate the whole room very well.

The Vapor floor light will work well in many domestic or commercial settings and is contemporary and modern in look. The floor light will look best in a lounge or reception due to its striking design and ambient light. The Vapor lamp also has an integrated dimmer so you can create the exact atmosphere you want.
