PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Manuel Vivian

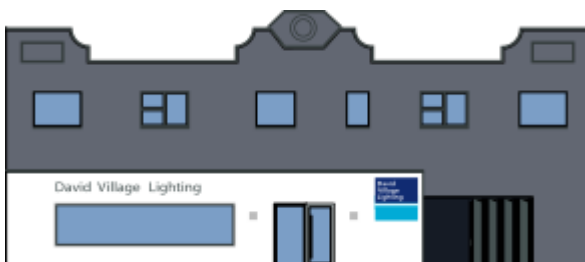

Bell Ceiling Light by Axolight

A multidimensional light, the Bell collection is among Axolight's iconic lights. Designed by Manuel Vivian, whose designs have no limits in experimentation. The Bell ceiling light is a stunning piece, functioning as both light and decorative piece. Available in three sizes, with a diameter of 60 cm, 90 cm and 118 cm. The shade is made of ponge fabric and is available in numerous vibrant colour options: white, warm white, gold yellow, black and red. The smaller sizes are perfect for your home, either the living room or above your dining table or kitchen counter, while the larger sizes are best suited for use in commercial spaces and in hospitality. The ceiling light is also available in the extra large size of 180 cm diameter, in the same colour options, please contact us, for more information and pricing.

The collection also includes the iconic Bell Suspension light available in the same colours and sizes.
