Warm Nordic Fringe Floor Lamp

The Fringe Floor Lamp was designed by Hans-Agne Jakobsson in 1960. It features a lampshade made from layered fringes, which conceals the light source to create a soft, diffused glow. The polished brass frame pairs with the fringed shade to create a clean silhouette. The fringe, which falls like layers of a skirt, adds a playful touch to the sleek brass frame.

The subtle beauty and grace of The Fringe Floor Lamp help it fit seamlessly into both classic and contemporary interiors. The shade is available in a cream-white or pale pink colour. Combine with other lights from The Fringe Collection to create a consistent lighting scheme throughout your home. The diffused glow is ideal for adding atmospheric lighting to living rooms and bedrooms. Originally designed in the 60s, The Fringe Collection was consistently sought after by collectors until Warm Nordic decided to re-release it, making the classic design accessible to all fans of the design.
