KDLN Lilli Pendant

The KDLN Lilli Pendant is an elegant luminaire designed by Cristina Celestino, inspired by the delicate form of the Martagon Lily. Its softly ribbed, white opal diffuser is made from two layers of mouth-blown glass, creating a refined floral silhouette that feels both decorative and architectural. A satin brass structure and matching lower detail add warmth and sophistication, giving the pendant a graceful presence whether used alone or arranged in multiples.

Adding a decorative element above dining tables, kitchen islands, bedside areas, or boutique hospitality spaces, Lilli offers soft, diffused illumination with a distinctly Italian design character. The Lilli Pendant is suitable for interiors that call for statement lighting without overpowering the scheme. Its dimmable design and three E14 light sources allow the ambience to be tailored from warm everyday light to an intimate evening glow.
