Gubi Stemplite Table Lamp

The Gubi Stemplite Table Lamp is a timeless masterpiece from Bill Curry's 1962 collection, showcasing the designer's groundbreaking "total look" concept. With its smooth frosted glass globe and tulip-like die-cast metal base, the table lamp offers a harmonious blend of organic inspiration and modernist innovation.

Available in two sizes and three finishes, black chrome, black red, and pebble grey, the Stemplite Table Lamp is both versatile and elegant. Its diffused light creates a cosy atmosphere, making it ideal for desks, bedside tables, or living areas. A simple rotary switch beneath the shade provides intuitive dimming control, enhancing its practicality.

The Stemplite Table Lamp's compact size and understated form make it perfect for small spaces or as part of a larger lighting arrangement. Whether paired with the floor lamp for a cohesive aesthetic or used alone as a feature piece, this lamp delivers timeless charm and functionality.
