A new release from the Tom Dixon brand, the Globe pendant has a perfectly round lampshade with an integrated LED light source that sits in the middle and reflects off the metallised interior as soon as the pendant is turned on. What results is a warming effect that transforms the pendant light, lending a mystical and contemporary touch to any interior.

The Globe pendant light is dimmable so you can create the atmosphere you want and is useful as the main light when used alone in a smaller space. You can also use multiple for bigger spaces, and the pendant light can be used in homes and commercial interiors. The minimalist and pure nature of the Globe pendant lamp makes it a stunning and eye-catching addition to any room and will provide a soft yet effective glow.
