Foscarini Sun-Light of Love Suspension

The Sun-Light of Love Suspension by Foscarini boasts a total of 390 metal rays, which are attached to the core structure of the luminaire. Similar to the sun, with its mystifying contours, the Sun-Light of Love has no beginning or end to it, this abstract suspension takes an obscure form, resembling a floating sphere. Designed by Tord Boontje it doesn't need to try to impress, as the light instantly becomes a decorative object, even when not in use.

Sun-Light of Love has a double light source, direct and indirect. The indirect has a low power LED source, emitting an upwards light that highlights its upper details. A stronger light is diffused downwards creating a warm atmosphere in any setting. The LED suspension is available in two colours, white or gold. Each colour sets a different tone; a precious spirit created by the gold, and a minimalist feeling by the white.
