Audo Copenhagen Hashira Table Lamp

The Hashira Table Lamp is part of the Audo Copenhagen Hashira Collection, a range designed by Norm Architects. The name Hashira comes from the Japanese for column or pillar, which this table lamp embodies with its cylindrical silhouette. The lampshade is crafted from natural linen and is inspired by the traditional Japanese lanterns made from rice paper.

Combining both traditional and modern design ideals, the Audo Copenhagen Hashira Table Lamp produces a warm and diffused glow that illuminates the room in a beautiful way. With a dimmer switch included, you can create a wonderful ambience, whether at home or in a professional setting. Use in bedrooms, lounges, offices and more on tables and desks to create a soft and graceful aesthetic that immediately calms you.
