Designed by Davide Oppizzi, the Artemide Curiosity Portable Lamp is a downlighting solution that can highlight objects and displays in an enticing way. The portable lamp utilises a square frame and base which can hold objects, drawing the eye and bringing all towards it. The structure is crafted from aluminium, which is light and can be carried around to be placed exactly where you need it most.

The Artemide Curiosity LED Portable has a 3-step touch dimmer with the battery lasting 26 hours when set to the lowest light setting, and has a charger cable included in the purchase.
