Foundry Pendant Light by Innermost

The Innermost Foundry Pendant Light embodies the iconic industrial workshop style, with a sleek, domed shape and clean lines. Made from spun steel, this pendant offers a versatile lighting solution for both residential and commercial spaces. The white interior of the shade ensures optimal light reflection, creating an inviting ambience, whether used singly or in multiples. Available in black, red, yellow, and white, the Foundry pendant brings a contemporary edge to traditional industrial design.

In addition to its standard E27 socket, the Foundry Pendant is also compatible with Innermost's DropLED integrated LED unit for those seeking an energy-efficient option. With an adjustable cable and a matching ceiling rose, this pendant can be adapted to fit various interior aesthetics, from minimalist to vibrant industrial themes.
