Artemide Pirce Suspension

The Pirce Suspension is part of Artemide's top-selling Pirce Collection, designed by Giuseppe Maurizio Scutellà. The award-winning design is crafted from aluminium discs that appear as fluttering spirals, falling gently downwards. This elegant display adds a sculptural presence which complements any modern space with brilliant design consistency. Giuseppe Maurizio Scutellà wanted to offer the audience multiple points of view, so he created the Pirce to appear differently from every angle it's viewed.

When switched on, a bright beam of light is cast upwards, reflecting off the metal frame for glare-free lighting and an enchanting play of light and shadow. Display above a dining table or kitchen island to illuminate the surface below while adding a warm ambience to the room. In commercial spaces, install in a large entrance way or lining the length of a hallway for an alluring composition that will leave a lasting impression.
