Flos Toio Floor Lamp

The Toio Floor Lamp, designed by the Castiglioni brothers Achille and Pier, for Flos in 1962, is a floor lamp which exudes character. Since its initial design, the Flos Toio Floor Lamp has become a design classic, oozing industrial style with a chic colour palette. The Toio floor lamp has a hexagonal nickel-plated brass height adjustable stem with a telescopic head, featuring an exposed bulb and sturdy steel base.

The Flos Toio generates functional uplighting that is a beautiful addition to a range of interiors, including modern living rooms, workspaces and dining areas. Available in three colour choices, red, black and white, the Toio Floor Lamp also features an electronic dimmer on the cable allowing the regulation of light output to suit the needs of you nd your space.
