PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Anu Moser

Louis Poulsen Moser Pendant

Designed by ceramic artist Anu Moser, the Moser pendant has a unique and smooth silhouette. Moser was inspired by how molten glass first forms when you blow it, taking the traditional glass-blowing process to inform the shape and style of the pendant. The shade is made from opal glass, which completely conceals the light source, creating a warm glow that diffuses throughout the room beautifully.

The Moser pendant light is available in 3 sizes, Ø185, Ø205, and Ø250, and the simple matt white finish paired with the chic aluminium fitting makes it suitable for many design schemes. The pendant light can be used in many settings to provide a welcoming and effective light, and can be used alone in smaller rooms or in rows and clusters for bigger spaces. Mix and match the sizes to create a varied light feature that will draw the eye and amaze.
