PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Tobia Scarpa

Biagio Table Lamp by Flos

The Biagio table lamp from Flos is a classic piece of 1960s design. Exquisitely carved from one single piece of Carrara marble, the Biagio table lamp has an eye catching shape and features a curved spine, providing soft and direct light output.

The designer, Tobia Scarpa, famously worked with his wife Afra to design iconic Italian lighting and furniture products. Their philosophy was simple but ambitious: to use the most modern manufacturing techniques to create items that would harmonise with traditional interiors while making conventional designs even more functional. Designed by Scarpa in 1968, the Biagio table lamp remains a design classic while elegantly fitting into contemporary design.
