Artemide Castore 35 Floor Lamp

Michelle de Lucchi and Huub Ubbens designed the Artemide Castore Floor Lamp, with a discreet and minimal design. This floor lamp provides a soft and cosy ambience, whilst utilising a clean and minimalistic aesthetic. The Castore Floor Lamp is the only Castore light available in one size, with a large globe diffuser of 35cm diameter. The diffuser merges into the stem via a white translucent polycarbonate 'sleeve', through which light escapes and is diffused down the stem. The illumination from the Artemide Castore 35 Floor Lamp looks mesmerising as a standalone, but can also be complemented with other designs in the collection.

Castor offers a plethora of possibilities, creating a feeling of tranquillity in any environment. The lighting output can be easily dimmed via an integrated dimmer, and the sleek white finish allows this floor lamp to adapt to a variety of interiors, for both residential spaces and commercial environments. Explore the Castore Collection, which also includes suspension lights in 4 sizes and table lamps in 3 sizes.
