Kartell Bubble Club Armchair

An icon for Kartell the Bubble Club collection, including the armchair and sofa, is part of a new concept for furniture. Philippe Starck made it possible to bring the industrial chair into every home by making it entirely out of plastic. The technology behind it made it easier to mass produce furniture, which were once handmade.

The design is minimalist, with very simple lines and while exclusively made of plastic the Bubble armchair retains some of its soft lines. The Bubble furniture make us reminiscent of our grandparent's living room, where such fittings were always present. You can create your own sitting arrangement with Bubble chairs or add a Bubble sofa, available in the same colour options. You can use your Bubble furniture both indoors and outdoors, by the pool or the patio.
