Artemide Choose Table Lamp

Mattheo Thun reimagined the traditional abat-jour with a modern interpretation to design the Artemide Choose Table Lamp. Choose is made up of a polycarbonate diffuser, which takes a parchment pleated or white paper insert matched with an anthracite grey or chrome base. The lamp emits a diffused soft light and is a great companion for your bedside, on a shelf or just about anywhere around the home or office space. The diffuser is adjustable as you can tilt upwards or downwards and can rotate up to 350°, thus allowing you to adjust and direct the light to your liking.

The Artemide Choose Table Lamp can easily adapt to classic and contemporary interiors and has functionality at the heart of its design. This table lamp is also available as a floor lamp, mega floor lamp, pendant light and wall light.
