Flos Rosy Angelis Floor Lamp

Designed by renowned Phillipe Starck in 1994, the Flos Rosy Angelis Floor Lamp combines contemporary and organic aesthetics. Elegant in its shape, the Rosy Angelis is romantically nostalgic and provides a welcoming, diffused glow thanks to its soft, flowing silk lampshade. This lampshade is supported by a slender aluminium tripod base, adding a modern touch to the lighting solution.

The Rosy Angelis Floor Lamp features a 0-100% rotary dimmer located inside the lamp holder, which is operated by a sleek, satin-finished stem. This feature allows you to easily personalise the lighting output and create an atmosphere that is perfect for your needs and your space. Rosy Angelis is able to suit a variety of environments and personal styles and is a sophisticated way to add ambient lighting to bedrooms, living areas, reading nooks or snugs.
