Rosy Angelis Floor Lamp by Flos

The Rosy Angelis floor lamp by arguably one of the most famous Flos designers, Philippe Starck, was designed in 1994. Elegant in its shape, the Rosy Angelis is romantically nostalgic, and provides a soft diffused glow with its soft, flowing silk lampshade.

Available with a grey frame, the Rosy Angelis floor light features a 0-100% rotary dimmer located inside the lamp-holder which is operated by a sleek satin-finished aluminium stem, providing a pleasant lighting atmosphere. This floor lamp suits a variety of environments including bedrooms, living areas or snugs.
