Aura 60 Suspension by Axolight

The single Aura 60 suspension light, a design by Manuel Vivian for Axolight. Vivian created the Aura Collection which includes a double suspension, a wall and a ceiling light. Aura lights are known for the twisted glass pieces which make up the lights. Murano glass is used, and is hand crafted from start to finish; making each piece unique. Pure craftsmanship is put into the creation of each suspension and the result is impressive. Aura 60 creates a sparkle and reflects light in a way that it reminds us the glory of the past.

The glass pieces are available in four colours: white, red, tea and 'rigadin' crystal. The ceiling rose and details are available in a chrome finish. A light that will capture the eye and mesmerise, suitable for any interior space and a decorative piece for homes and businesses. The Aura lights are guaranteed to create a capturing atmosphere and are suitable for residential and commercial settings, and in hospitality.

Browse through the Aura Collection of these stunning lights and select the perfect suspension, wall or ceiling light for you.
