Santa & Cole TMM Floor Lamp

A beautiful and classic piece of work by Miguel Mila, the TMM Floor Lamp was created in 1961 for Santa & Cole and has since become one of the most celebrated pieces by the Spanish designer. This floor lamp was the first design in the TM collection and paved the way for other remarkable designs. The more casual light in the collection, the TMM Floor Lamp boasts a wooden structure, available in cherry, walnut, natural oak or beech wood - but also available in black oak for a slightly more modern touch.

The most memorable aspect of the Santa & Cole TMM Floor Lamp is the adjustable drum-shaped shade; this shade can be raised or lowered depending on the lighting output you desire most, this makes it incredibly easy for you to personalise the ambience in your space. With a lower shade the TMM produces a more direct illumination, whereas at a higher setting, it emits a wider and more calming glow across the room. The base in the form of a cross supports the structure of the lamp and the large shade. Santa & Cole TMM does not host a conventional switch, and can be turned on/off via the cord that protrudes from the shade - this cord can be gently pulled to achieve this. The TMM Floor Lamp was awarded the ADI FAD Critics Award in 1962.
