Santa & Cole Nimba LED Pendant Light

The Nimba pendant lamp was designed by Antoni Arola in the late 90s and is the first light fixture to be produced by a prolific designer. This pendant is characterised by a big halo of light, supported by a steel structure finished in a natural or gold varnish. The pendant light gets its name from nimbus, meaning a cloud or halo that surrounds a saint or supernatural being.

Gracefully hanging in the air, the Nimbus pendant is available in four sizes which signify the size of the circumference. With advanced LED technology, the light diffuses against the inner white shade and creates an ethereal glow, creating a magical atmosphere wherever it is placed.
