The Flos Superarchimoon Floor Lamp was designed by renowned French designer Philippe Starck and provides direct yet diffused light. Superarchimoon is crafted from aluminium and steel springs, making it robust and sturdy, whilst the acid-etched hand-blown pressed borosilicate glass internal diffuser is paired with a plissé cloth external diffuser, resulting in a comforting illumination.

The imposing size of the Superarchimoon Floor Lamp makes it perfect for lighting large spaces, and the super flexible design allows the shade and arms to be moved in any direction. The Flos Superarchimoon also comes complete with a dimmer on the cable, allowing the lighting output to be adjusted to suit your personal preferences.
