Oluce Spider Floor Lamp

The Oluce Spider Floor Lamp, created by Joe Colombo in 1965, is a shining example of mid-century modern design. Recognised with the Golden Compass Award in 1967, this lamp has earned its place in the collections of prestigious museums worldwide. The Spider Floor Lamp's sleek design features a lacquered metal base, a chromed stem, and an adjustable aluminium reflector, which can be angled to create precise, direct lighting.

Ideal for both residential and commercial settings, the Spider Floor Lamp provides functional lighting while serving as a statement piece in any interior. Available in bold finishes like gloss black and mustard yellow, the lamp adds a stylish and timeless touch to living rooms, offices, and hospitality spaces.
