Oluce Fiore Suspension

Oluce Fiore Suspension was designed by Marta Laudani & Marco Romanelli. The design duo characterised this project as a conscious reference to the 1970s: the lamp becomes a flower, the most classic of flowers with a centre and petals radiating around it. Perhaps it is a daisy, barely outlined in the abstract sharpness of the metal and the glass, but poetically evoked by the shadow that is projected on the wall or ceiling. It is a flower in the contemporary razzle-dazzle of flowers which is not created by the decor but by its structure. A flower that is a symbol and a metaphor: "Deck the walls of your homes with flowers!"

Oluce Fiore Suspension is available in one size and colourway. The 423 has 7 transparent glass shades which have been mouth-blown to create their unique shape. Due to the several glass shades, the suspension creates a beautiful pattern which decorates the ceiling and any surrounding wall areas. Oluce Fiore collection also includes a wall/ceiling light which can be featured alongside the suspension for a seamless theme flowing throughout any room.
