Oluce Stones Of Glass Floor Light

Oluce Stones Of Glass Floor Light was designed by design duo, Marta Laudani and Marco Romanelli in 2001. Designed with discreet luminosity in mind, these minimalistic floor lamps disperse light evenly in all directions which creates a striking visual feature. Stones Outdoor Floor Lights are designed to resemble naturally shaped rocks which can be displayed individually or in a group.

Stones Of Glass Floor Light was built from opaline opaque murano-blown glass as a symbol of the oriental world and is available in two different sizes: medium and large. They can be displayed on their own or combined in groups to elevate the ambience to a whole new level. Oluce stones collection also includes Oluce Stones Outdoor Floor Light, which has an IP65 rating, allowing the light to be taken outside.
